Membership Levels . . .

Many members consider their primary benefit to be the satisfaction of knowing that they are supporting the preservation of the singular beauty and historic character of a great national treasure.

All Friends Members enjoy the following benefits:

- Reduced admission to the many public tours and lectures presented throughout the year by both Mount Auburn's own staff as well as visiting experts on topics such as horticulture, birding, history, landscape design, monument preservation, notable residents of Mount Auburn, and much more;
- Publications including the Friends program announcements, our newsletter Sweet Auburn, the Annual Reports for Mount Auburn Cemetery and the Friends of Mount Auburn Cemetery, and
- A membership card and window decal showing that you are a Friend of this National Historic Landmark.

Members at the level of 1831 Benefactor, Story Circle, Bigelow Circle, and Founders Circle provide essential annual support to the Friends of Mount Auburn Cemetery with their contributions of $1,000 or more. From time to time, the Friends hosts special events to which 1831 Benefactors and above are invited, including "Behind-the-Scenes" staff-led tours which highlight specific projects or work at Mount Auburn Cemetery. 1831 Benefactors and above are also invited to name four friends to receive courtesy memberships to the Friends of Mount Auburn Cemetery.
